

NEW WRITING
CUMBRIA

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Rabbit Rabbit (rabbit).

We're setting up a group of the best, and most interesting, developing young writers in Cumbria.

It doesn't matter whether you've been writing since before you could walk and are published in oodles of magazines, or whether you only ever write in secret and shyly hide your creations in a shoebox under your bed.

And it doesn't matter what you write: poetry, novels, short stories, plays, film or TV script, blog posts, memoir, journalism, or other non-fiction.

What matters is your enthusiasm and commitment.

There is a rolling deadline for applications, so just get in touch!

So what's in it for me?

- Be part of a group of the most promising emerging writers in Cumbria.
- Set up and put on events in a new venue in Penrith.
- Create an online journal of the best Cumbrian writing.
- Work with published, professional writers.
- Publish and perform your work.

Who are we looking for?

- Are you interested in creating and programming events?
- Do you write? It can be anything, from poetry or fiction, to play or film script, to blog posts, to non-fiction or journalism. The important thing is that you're passionate about doing it.
- Are you interested in other people's writing?

The necessities:

- You must be aged between 15 and 24.
- You must live, work, or be in education in Cumbria.

To apply:

- Fill in the application form on the next page.
- Tell us why you want to be a part of Rabbit Rabbit (rabbit).
- Tell us about a piece of writing you liked, and why you liked it.
- Send us a sample of your writing (up to 3 pages).
- Send your application to: katie@edenarts.co.uk or by post to:
